Dear Mr Ketan Vadnathani,

I have realized that the document sent earlier was not meant for you but for another client. Therefore, please refer to the correct document attached below.

I sincerely apologize for any confusion or inconvenience caused because of this miscommunication. However, I will make sure that any such error is not repeated in the future.

Thank you for your cooperation and understanding.

Your sincerely,

Rachna Senbhariya.

4. Asking for a Raise in Salary.

Subject: Asking company manager for a raise in salary.

Dear Mr Anil Senbhariya,

I would like to request a meeting with you to discuss my compensation.

I have been with the company for last five years and believe that, based on my experience and skill, as well as my recent accomplishments and projects, I deserve a raise in my salary.

I would appreciate 30 minutes of your time to talk about this further.

Thank you,

Rachna Senbhariya.

5. Quotation Email
